

125th Anniversary Exhibit at Portland Public Library

In celebration of the Portland Camera Club's 125th anniversary, the club will present an exhibit at the Portland Public Library in March. The exhibit will include 15 historical images from the club's past, plus 5 prints from current PCC members.

Members are encouraged to submit 1 or 2 images for consideration by a jury of 3 Exhibit Committee members: Greg Roscoe, Bill Shumaker and Steve Painter. The jury will select 5 images to be included in the exhibit. Hunts Photo will print the 5 contemporary and 15 historical images, and mount each of them on gatorboard for the exhibit.

Submission guidelines:

- Deadline for images is Tuesday, January 16. Email your image files with Subject = 125th to pccupload@gmail.com. Every submission receives a confirmation within 72 hours.
- One or two images per member. JPEG format only. Images should not exceed maximum width 1920px and maximum height 1080px.
- Name your image files in the format your name-title.jpg, for example, Ansel-Adams-Portland-Harbor-Sunrise.jpg

During the jury process, the Exhibit Committee will view all images with the makers' names hidden. The jury will choose 5 images on Jan 20. The 5 makers will be notified and have from Jan 20 through Jan 26 to prepare 2 items:

1. A high resolution image file for the final print. Additional details will be sent regarding the final, high resolution files.
2. A letter sized print of the image for Hunts Photo to use as a reference when they make the final print.
